IS THE PLACE.

TO BUY TREES.
Will sell to suit the times.

I AM NOW selling trees at the nursery on 12 months time, without interest, for $12.50 per hundred; for Cash at $10 per hundred; and $1.50 per dozen. Pear, cherry and plum trees, 50 cents each; peach 20 cents each; orange, 1st class, $3.50 per 1,000 2nd class, $1.75 per 1,000. All other stock about the same as previous seasons.

Don't forget that our eastern neighbors are feeding apples to stock with good results, while we have only a scanty supply for family use. Also the eastern farmers have their barrels of cider and an abundance of the best apple vinegar, and here either is a rarety with the majority of families. And yet we most all cultivate more land than is profitable and have often an abundance of wheat and worn out lands that could be made profitable if set in trees, besides improving the condition of the land.

PROSPECTUS OF
THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLICAN.
A First Class Family and News Journal.

Referring to its course in the past as the best index of the spirit which will control its future management, the Republican is encouraged to promise its readers a marked advancement. In every particular that constitutes a great metropolitan journal, for the year to come. It is with unexampled gratification we are able to say that within a year and a week after making changes and improvements more extensive than have ever been made by any established and successful paper of the world, it is again compelled to enlarge, increasing its size from forty-eight to fifty-six columns, to meet the increasing volume of news and advertisements. With such signal evidences of vigor and enterprise as may be found in the pages of its files, perfect confidence is assured that no energy will be relaxed to add to the numerous features which have already made the Republican pre-eminently the great newspaper of the Mississippi Valley. Arrangements are making and will rapidly be consummated by which it will enjoy increased facilities for the collection of news, and no exertion will be spared by which constant improvement and progress may be exhibited, both in the quality and quantity of the reading matter presented to its patrons.

An extensive increase in its circulation, in the face of a stringent money market and spite of the bitter denunciation by the partisan press on account of the independent course which it has pursued with reference to the great political questions of the day, encourages its continuance in that course.
Cheered by popular approval and animated by the consciousness of right, the Republican will be found, as heretofore, a sturdy advocate of Democratic and Conservative principles, but loyal to no party and governed by no dictation from clique or faction.
Its independence means freedom and enfranchisement, not alone from parties as now constituted, but from any new ones that the politicians may construct. In brief, the Republican, making for its chief object the dissemination of the news, with intelligent and conscientious comments upon the topics of the day, will heartily advocate those measures which promise the greatest good to the body of the people, giving support to all movements, whether political or otherwise, which promise to further their interests, and unhesitatingly opposing such as would put them in jeopardy.

The Tri-Weekly Republican is made up from the contents of the daily, and is designed to accommodate readers residing at points not reached by daily mails.

The Weekly Republican will be found, as heretofore, a faithful epitome of the weekly news, re-arranged and re-written expressly for that edition. No pains or expense will be spared to make it in every respect as a general news and literary paper the best weekly publication in the country, for which purpose a large amount of matter to be found in no other issue, will be prepared and collected expressly for it each week.

Besides special features of a literary and miscellaneous character, especially adapting it for the family circle, its well-earned superiority as a NEWS paper will be scrupulously maintained by a continuance of the attention heretofore devoted to this class of matter. In addition to a general record of the week's news, local, domestic and foreign, the readers of the Weekly Republican are guaranteed fully as detailed and graphic reports of important and absorbing events as are furnished subscribers of the large metropolitan journals.
